

Community Listening Sessions

Help Shape the Future of Fire & Emergency Services

Your voice matters. The Los Pinos Fire Protection District invites you to join a series of community listening sessions about the future of fire and emergency services in our area.

These sessions are your opportunity to share thoughts, concerns, and priorities on fire protection, emergency medical services, wildfire preparedness, and the district's future needs. We want to hear what matters most to you, what concerns you have, and what should guide our planning ahead.

Session 1 — Introducing the Planning Process

Thursday, August 20 | 6:30–8:00 pm | LPFPD Station 1, 275 Browning Avenue, Ignacio

Thursday, August 27 | 6:30–8:00 pm | TARA Community Center, 333 Milton Lane, Arboles

We will:

- Introduce the district's planning process
- Listen to what residents value most
- Identify community concerns and expectations

Session 2 — Discussing Priorities and Tradeoffs

Thursday, September 10 | 6:30–8:00 pm | LPFPD Station 1, 275 Browning Avenue, Ignacio

Thursday, September 24 | 6:30–8:00 pm | TARA Community Center, 333 Milton Lane, Arboles

We will:

- Share what we heard during Session 1
- Discuss upcoming challenges facing the district
- Gather your input on priorities and tradeoffs

Can't attend in person? Share your input anyway:

- Email: jllorenzen@lospinosfire.com
- Website comment form: www.lospinosfire.com
- Phone: 970-563-9501

We hope you'll join us and help shape the future of emergency services in our community.
